The U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962¹

[U.P. Act 26 of 1962]

(As passed by the U.P. Legislature)

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the regulation of conditions of work and employment in shops and commercial establishments

It is hereby enacted in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

Prefatory Note.—An extract from the Statement of Objects and Reasons is given below:

"The U.P. Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1947, was enacted in the year 1947 to provide for holidays and to regulate the hours of employment in shops and commercial establishments. Since then the Act has been enforced in more than 100 towns. During the 14 years of its administration in the State many shortcomings and deficiencies have been experienced. A number of suggestions from the employers' and the employees' unions have also been received for making amendment to certain provisions of the existing Act. In order to remove these difficulties and to provide some additional facilities to the employees of shops and commercial establishments, it has become necessary to amend the existing Act. As the proposed amendments are numerous it has been decided to repeal the existing Act and to bring in a comprehensive Bill incorporating the necessary provisions for regulating the conditions of work and employment of employees in the shops and commercial establishments." Vide U.P. Gazette, Extraordinary, dated September 15, 1962.

CASE LAW

Constitutionality of Act.—Provisions of the Act are not ultra vires the Constitution, Mohd. Waseem v. State, 1970 AWR 160: 1970 All Cr C 80: 1970 All Cri R 98.

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and application.—(1) This Act may be called the Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962.

(2) It extends to the whole of Uttar Pradesh.

(3) The provisions of this Act referred to in Schedule I shall, in the areas mentioned in the said Schedule, apply to the extent specified therein and the State Government may from time to time, direct, by notification in the Gazette, that all or any of the provisions of this Act shall also apply in relation to such areas and to such extent as may be specified in the notification.

CASE LAW

Applicability of Act.—Provisions of the Act would not apply to a purchasing centre which does not fall under any of the parts in Sch. 1 to the Act, Sushil Kumar v. State, 1968 All Cr R 188: 1968 All WR 287.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

- (1) 'apprentice' means a person, not being a person below the age of 12 years, employed for purposes of training, with or without wages, by an employer in any trade or calling;
- ²[(1-a) 'Chief Inspector' means the Chief Inspector appointed under Section 29, and includes a Deputy Chief Inspector or Inspector appointed under that section;]
- (2) 'child' means a person who has not completed his fourteenth year;
- (3) 'close' means not open within the meaning of clause (13);
- (4) 'Commercial establishment' means any premises, not being the premises of a factory, or a shop, wherein any trade, business, manufacture, or any work in connection with, or incidental or ancillary thereto, is carried on for profit and includes a premises wherein journalistic or printing work, or business of banking, insurance, stocks and shares, brokerage or produce exchange is carried on, or which is used as theatre, cinema, or for any other public amusement or entertainment or where the clerical and other establishment of a factory, to whom the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948, do not apply, work;

CASE LAW

Field workers i.e. supervisors and kamdars employed by a sugar factory are not 'workers'. They are employees of a "Commercial Establishment", State of U.P. v. M.P. Singh, AIR 1960 SC 569.

Domestic house of an officer of company is not 'commercial establishment', Ram Het v. Ganesh Flour Mills, 1973 AWR 235: 1973 All Cri Rep 143.

Branch office of a company falls under the heading commercial establishment, Som Nath Soni v. Hind Housing & Constructions Ltd., 1970 AWR 215.

A person performing supervisory work at a particular commercial establishment having not more than three employees will not be outside the purview of an 'employee' to whom the Act applies notwithstanding that he draws a salary of Rs 450 per month, Som Nath Soni v. Hind Housing & Constructions Ltd., 1970 AWR 215.

Doctor's clinic running several services which could be had by any person whether patient or not comes within purview of commercial establishment or shop within meaning of S. 2(4) and (20) of Adhiniyam. Persons employed in such clinic are entitled to gratuity, Vinai Kumar Gupta v. Asstt. Labour Commissioner, (1981) 43 FLR 427 (All).

Commercial establishments, which include a Cinema Hall are covered by the provision of U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962 and employees of such commercial establishment, if not paid their wages as provided under the Act, can ask for recovery of the withheld wages in accordance with the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act, 1976, Anil Kumar Yadav v. State of U.P., (2007) 115 FLR 521 (All).

U.P. Cooperative Bank Ltd., is a "commercial establishment", engaged in business of banking. An establishment covered under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 is not exempted under S. 3(3) of Shop Act, Member Secretary, Coop. Bank Centralized Services v. Appellate Authority, under Payment of Gratuity Act, Kanpur, (2007) 114 FLR 549 (All).

(5) 'day' means the period of 24 hours beginning at midnight:

1. Received the assent of the President on December 18, 1962 and the English translation of the Act was published in U.P. Gazette, Extra., dated December 26, 1962.

Provided that in the case of an employee, whose hours of work extend beyond midnight, day means the period of 24 hours beginning from the hour of commencement of his duty;

- (6) 'employee' means a person wholly or mainly employed on wages by an employer in, or in connection with any trade, business or manufacture carried on in a shop or commercial establishment and includes—
- (a) caretaker, mali or a member of the watch and ward staff,
 - (b) any clerical or other staff of a factory or industrial establishment, which is not covered by the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948; and
 - (c) any apprentice or a contract or piece-rate worker;

CASE LAW

Domestic servants employed by Company and allotted to its officers have control or jurisdiction of Company over such servants hence, they cannot be said to be employed in or in connection with trade, business or commerce within meaning of S. 2(6), Ganesh Flour Mills Co. v. Labour Court, (1971) 22 FLR 172 (All).

A workman performing domestic duties at the residence of an officer of a factory is not an 'employee', Ram Het v. Ganesh Flour Mills, 1973 AWR 235: 1973 All Cri R 143.

Finding of Labour Court that a certain person is not an employee is not challengeable in writ petition, Bishan v. Labour Court, 1979 ALJ 528.

Contract workers are employees, State v. Mirza Bashir Beg, 1973 ALJ 220: 1973 All Cri R 124: 1973 AWR 150: 1973 Cri LJ 1645.

The expression "which is not covered by the provisions of Factories Act" applies not only to industrial establishments but also to factories, Ram Het v. Ganesh Flour Mills, 1973 AWR 235.

Contract workers are employees and the emoluments payable to them are wages, State v. Mirza Bashir Beg, 1973 ALJ 220: 1973 All Cri R 124: 1973 All WR 150: 1973 Cri LJ 1745 ILR: (1973) 1 All 385.

- (7) 'employer' means a person who owns, or who holds charge of, or has ultimate control over the trade, business or manufacture carried on in a shop or commercial establishment, as the case may be, and includes the manager, agent or any other person acting on behalf of the employer in the management or control of such trade, business or manufacture;
- (8) 'factory' shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Factories Act, 1948, so however as not to include the premises where the clerical or other establishment of a factory, to whom the provisions of that Act do not apply, work;
- (9) 'family' in relation to an employer means the husband or wife, as the case may be, son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister of such employer, who lives with and is wholly dependant on him;
- (10) 'inspector' means an Inspector, Deputy Chief Inspector or the Chief Inspector, appointed under Section 29 of this Act;
- (11) 'leave' means a period of absence from duty with wages to which an employee is entitled under Chapter III of this Act;
- (12) 'night' means such period of twelve consecutive hours, so however as always to include the interval between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., as may be prescribed;

- (13) 'open' in relation to a shop or commercial establishment means open for the service of any customer, or for the business, trade or manufacture, normally carried on in the shop or commercial establishment;
- ³[(13-A) 'owner', in relation to a shop or commercial establishment, includes a person who runs or is incharge of such shop or commercial establishment;]
- (14) 'prescribed' means prescribed by the rules made under this Act;
- (15) 'retail trade or business' means the business of sale of goods in small quantities and the rendering of services to customers, and includes the business of a barber or hair-dresser, the sales of cooked food, refreshments or intoxicating liquors and retail sale by auction;
- (16) 'shop' means any premises where any wholesale or retail trade or business is carried on, or where services are rendered to customers, and includes, all offices, godowns or warehouses, whether in the same premises or not, which are used in connection with such trade or business;

CASE LAW

'Shop' is 'industry' within the meaning of U.P. Industrial Dispute Act, 1947, J. N. Singh and Co. (P) Ltd. v. S. N. Saxena (L.B.), (1976) 33 FLR 210 (All).

Word "shop" does not cover the purchase centre of the sugar mill. It cannot be a shop within the meaning of sub-s. (16) of S. 2 of the Act, Mool Chandra Sharma v. General Manager, Kisan Sahkari Chini Mills Ltd., Moradabad, (1999) 81 FLR 288 (All).

- (17) 'State' means the State of Uttar Pradesh;
- (18) 'wages' means all remuneration (whether by way of salary, allowances or otherwise) expressed in terms of money, or capable of being so expressed, which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to an employee, and includes—
 - (a) any bonus;
 - (b) any sum payable to the employee by reason of the termination of his employment; or
 - (c) any additional remuneration payable under the terms of his employment;
- (19) 'week' means a period between the midnight on Saturday, and the midnight on the following Saturday; and
- (20) 'young person' means a person who is not a child and has not completed his seventeenth year.

3. The provisions of the Act not to apply to certain persons, shops and commercial establishments.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall have no application to—

- (a) employees occupying positions of confidential, managerial or supervisory character in a shop or commercial establishment, wherein more than five employees are employed;

Provided that the number of employees so exempted in a shop or commercial establishment shall not exceed ten per cent of the total number of employees thereof;

- (b) employees whose work is inherently intermittent, as in the case of a traveller or canvasser;
- (c) offices of Government or local authorities;
- (d) offices of the Reserve Bank of India;
- (e) establishments for the treatment or care of the sick, infirm, destitute or mentally unfit; and
- (f) members of the family of an employer.

(2) A list of the employees referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be displayed at a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Inspector concerned.

(3) Powers of the Government to exempt any class of shops or commercial establishments from the operation of the Act.—The State Government may, in public interest, by notification in the Gazette, exempt, subject to such conditions as it may impose in this behalf, any shop or commercial establishment or any class of shops or commercial establishments from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(4) Withdrawal of exemption by the State Government.—The State Government may, likewise by notification in the Gazette, withdraw in whole or in part, permanently, or for such period as may be specified, any exemption granted under sub-section (3).

CASE LAW

The effect of Section 3(f) is not to permit the employers or the members of their family to keep their shops open on closed days and conduct business, Mohd. Waseem v. State, 1970 AWR 160: 1970 All Cri C 80: 1970 All Cri R 98.

Mere designation of a workman as a Manager will not exclude him from operation of Adhiniyam, Anil Kumar Yadav v. State of U.P., (2007) 115 FLR 521 (All).

4. Savings.—Nothing contained in this Act shall adversely affect any right or privilege to which any employee may be entitled, on the date on which this Act begins to apply to him, under any law, award, agreement, contract, custom or usage, in force on the date.

⁴[CHAPTER I-A

REGISTRATION OF SHOPS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS

4-A. Register of shops and commercial establishments.—The Chief Inspector shall maintain in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed, a register of all shops and commercial establishments, to which this Act applies:

Provided that such different registers may be maintained for different areas and for different classes of shops and commercial establishments.

4-B. Registration.—(1) Every owner of a shop or commercial establishment shall within three months of the commencement of such business or within three months of the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishtan (Sanshodhan) Adhiniyam, 1976, whichever is later, apply to the Chief Inspector for registration of his shop or commercial establishment.

4. Ins. by U.P. Act 54 of 1976 (w.e.f. 15-10-1976).

(2) Every application for registration under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(3) The Chief Inspector shall, on being satisfied that the prescribed fee has been deposited, register the shop or commercial establishment in the register maintained under Section 4-A and shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner in such form and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

4-C. Term and renewal of registration certificate.—The registration certificate granted under Section 4-B shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed, and shall on an application being made in that behalf and upon payment of the prescribed fees, be renewable from time to time by the Chief Inspector for such further period as may be prescribed.

4-D. Duplicate registration certificate.—When a registration certificate is lost, destroyed or torn, or is defaced or otherwise becomes illegible, the Chief Inspector shall, in the manner prescribed and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a duplicate registration certificate.]

CHAPTER II

HOURS OF BUSINESS

5. Hours of business.—(1) No shop or commercial establishment, not being a shop or commercial establishment mentioned in Schedule II, shall, on any day, open earlier, or close later than such hour as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1), earlier opening, or later closing, hours may be prescribed for different classes of shops or commercial establishments, or for different areas, or for different periods of the year.

(3) The State Government may, at any time, by notification in the Gazette, add to or remove from Schedule II, any class of shops or commercial establishments.

CASE LAW

A photographer engaged in taking photographs of his customers is exempt from operation of Section 15, State v. Manmohan Nautiyal, 1972 ALJ 569: 1972 AWR 438: 1972 All Cri C 260: 1972 Cr LJ 21428: 1972 All Cri R 277: 42 FJR 252: (1972) 1 Lab LN 425.

6. Hours of work and overtime.—(1) No employer shall require or allow an employee to work on any day for more than—

- (a) five hours in the case of a child,
- (b) six hours in the case of a young person, and
- (c) eight hours in the case of any other employee:

Provided that any employee, not being a young person or a child, may be required or allowed to work longer than the aforesaid hours of work, so however, that the total number of hours of work including overtime does not exceed ten on any one day except on a day of stock-taking or making of accounts:

Provided further that the total number of hours of overtime work shall not exceed fifty in any quarter.

Explanation.—"Quarter" means a period of three consecutive months beginning on the 1st of January, the 1st of April, the 1st of July or the 1st of October.

(2) An employee, who has worked in excess of the hours of work fixed under clause (c) of sub-section (1), shall be paid by his employer, wages at twice the ordinary rate, for every overtime work.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this sub-section "ordinary rate" means the basic wages plus such allowances, including the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to employees of foodgrains and other articles, as the employee is for the time being entitled to, but does not include bonus.

Explanation 2.—In calculating the wages payable to an employee for overtime work, a day shall be reckoned as consisting of eight working hours.

CASE LAW

Overtime work above the limits prescribed by the two provisos to Section 6(1) is also work in excess of hours fixed by Section 6(1)(c), Bishan v. Labour Court, 1979 ALJ 528.

Expression 'on any day' occurring in Section 6(1) should be interpreted as "on any day other than a holiday" or "on any working day". Hence work done on holiday is overtime work, Bishan v. Labour Court, 1979 ALJ 528.

Where the shop was found open after prescribed closing time at night for stock-taking and taking of accounts and it was also found that the customers were refused purchases there was no contravention of Section 6, Mohd. Yamin v. State, 1968 All Cri C 82: 1968 All Cri R 24: 1968 All WR 20.

7. Intervals for rest and spread-over of working hours in a day.—The working hours in a shop or commercial establishment shall be so arranged that each employee gets an interval of not less than half an hour for rest after not more than five hours of continuous work, and the periods of work and intervals of rest of an employee do not spread-over more than twelve hours in one day:

Provided that the State Government may, in public interest and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary or expedient, increase the said spread-over period either generally or for a class of shops or commercial establishments.

CHAPTER III

HOLIDAYS AND LEAVE

8. Close days.—(1) Every employer shall keep his shop or commercial establishment, not included in Schedule II, closed on—

(a) one day in a week, and

(b) such public holidays in a year as may be prescribed, to be hereinafter referred to, as close days.

(2) The choice of a close day not being a close day which is a public holiday shall, subject to the approval of the authority appointed by the State Government in this behalf, rest with the employer. A notice specifying all close days shall be prominently displayed by the employer in a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment.

(3) The close day shall not be altered by the employer except once in a year and with the approval of the authority appointed under sub-section (2), to be obtained in the manner prescribed. Any such alteration shall take effect as from the first day of January of the year following:

Provided that where the employers in one locality do not observe the same day of the week as the close day, the authority appointed under sub-section (2) may, in the manner prescribed, fix a day as the close day for such locality:

Provided further that the authority may, on the written request of the majority of the employers in a locality, at any time after six months from the date on which a close day was earlier fixed, alter, with effect from a date to be specified by him, the close day, not being a close day which is a public holiday.

Explanation.—'Locality' means any compact area declared as such by public notice by the authority appointed under sub-section (2).

CASE LAW

Sale of non-exempted article along with exempted article on a weekly holiday amounts to an offence, 1969 All Cr R 411: 1969 WR All 683.

9. Holidays.—Every employee, not being a watchman or a caretaker, shall be allowed by the employer holiday on—

(i) every close day which is a public holiday; and

(ii) one whole day in each week:

Provided that nothing in clause (ii) shall apply to any employee whose total period of employment in the week including any day spent on leave or any holiday, is less than six days.

CASE LAW

Weekly holiday.—No part of the Act authorises the workmen to choose the day on which the holiday would be allowed. The employer alone has been given the right to make the choice, Ganesh Flour Mills v. Labour Court, 1971 Lab IC 255.

10. Earned leave, sickness leave and casual leave.—(1) Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of twelve months or over, shall in addition to any holiday allowed under Section 9, be entitled to earned leave for not less than fifteen days for every twelve months of such service:

Provided that a watchman or a caretaker who has been in continuous employment for a period of twelve months or over shall be entitled to not less than sixty days earned leave for every twelve months of such service.

(2) Every employee, who has been in continuous employment of the same employer for a period of six months or over shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be further entitled to sickness leave for not less than fifteen days in any one calendar year.

(3) Every employee shall, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, be also entitled, in addition to earned leave and sickness leave, to casual leave for not less than ten days in any one calendar year.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the rules made under this Act, all leave shall be granted when applied for.

(5) Any earned leave not availed of in any year by an employee shall be added to such leave accruing to the employee in the year following:

Provided that the total period of earned leave admissible to an employee at any time shall not exceed 45 days.

(6) In computing the period of continuous employment of an employee within the meaning of sub-section (1) or (2), the period during which he has been on leave under this section shall be included.

(7) Where the services of an employee are terminated by his employer, or where the employee terminates the employment, the employer shall be liable to pay to the employee wages for the number of days for which the earned leave is due to him.

11. Payment for leave refused.—(1) When earned leave is refused to an employee having to his credit such leave for 45 days, he shall be entitled, in respect of the period covered by the refusal, to an amount which would have been payable to him as wages for the period in case he had been on leave during that period.

(2) The amount payable under sub-section (1) shall be in addition to the wages payable for the period.

(3) On an employee receiving the said amount, the earned leave to his credit shall be reduced by the number of days in respect of which such amount is received.

12. Wages for holidays and leave.—For every holiday, and for each day of leave allowed under this Act, the employee shall be entitled to wages at a rate not less than that rate to which the employee was entitled for the day immediately preceding the holiday or the day of leave availed by him, anything to the contrary contained in any other law, contract, custom or usage notwithstanding.

CHAPTER IV

WAGE DEDUCTIONS AND NOTICES OF DISCHARGE

13. Wage period.—(1) Every employer shall fix a period, hereinafter referred to as the wage period, at the expiry, and in respect of which wages shall be payable to his employees.

(2) No wage period shall exceed one month.

(3) The wages of every employee shall be paid within such period as may be prescribed.

(4) The remuneration due to an employee in lieu of unavailed period of leave, and the wages earned by him, shall be paid—

(a) where the termination of his employment is by or on behalf of the employer, before the expiry of the second working day after such termination; and

(b) where the termination of his employment is by the employee, on or before the next pay day.

14. Payment of wages for period of earned leave.—(1) An employee proceeding on earned leave shall, on demand, be given advance payment of the wages for half the period of the leave, and the wages for the wage period immediately preceding such leave. The wages for the remaining half period of such leave shall be payable to him along with the wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

(2) The wages for the period of sickness leave shall be payable to the employee along with his wages for the first wage period after he resumes duty.

15. Deductions from wages.—No deductions from the wages of an employee shall be made except to such extent, and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

16. Fines on employees.—No fines in excess of three per cent of the wages payable to an employee for any wage period shall be imposed on him by the employer.

17. Register of fines.—(1) The employer shall maintain a register in the prescribed form, wherein shall be entered all fines imposed and recoveries thereof.

(2) Fines recovered from employees shall be applied only to such purposes as may be beneficial to them and approved by the authority empowered in this behalf by the State Government.

18. Recovery of wages.—The wages of an employee, if not paid as provided by or under this Act, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, as if the same wages were payable under that Act.

CASE LAW

The persons engaged on daily wages for preparation and selling of sweets are employees. The employer must maintain the wages, leave, attendance, fines and inspection book, 1966 All Cri R 78.

The provision of S. 18 of U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam clearly shows that wages of the employees, if not paid, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 as if the same wages were payable under that Act, Life Insurance Corpn. of India v. Special Judge (Anti-Corruption), Varanasi, (2000) 84 FLR 147 (All).

Payment of Wages Act, 1936 is only a mechanism for recovery of wages and because the U.P. Dookan and Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962 has application to any employee, that does not automatically bring him under the umbrella of the 1936 Act. Section 18 of the U.P. Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishthan Adhiniyam, 1962 only provides that once an employee under the Adhiniyam is not paid, the procedure for recovery under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 is to be adopted. Once Section 1(6) of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 applies, the nature of the job is irrelevant, LIC of India v. Anwar Khan, (2007) 11 SCC 25.

19. Discharge of employee by his employer.—(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period or in a leave vacancy, shall be discharged from service by his employer except on the ground that—

(a) the post held by him has been retrenched; or

(b) he is unfit to perform his duties on the ground of physical infirmity or continued ill-health, and he has been served with a notice in writing containing the grounds of discharge. The notice shall be for a period of not less than thirty days, or such longer period as may be required under the terms of employment:

Provided that the notice of discharge may be of a shorter period if the same is accompanied with payment of wages to the employee for the number of days the notice is short of the required period.

Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to dismissal for misconduct.

CASE LAW

The word 'strike' implies a concerted action by a body of persons. If a workman acting on his own whim decides on cessation of work it would not amount to strike, Chhedi Lal Karia v. W.D.P. Ltd., 1975 ALJ 57: 1975 Lab IC 681.

Where a workman goes on hunger strike in sympathy with his co-worker in another company his conduct would amount to misconduct. The test is whether such strike affects the employer adversely, Wheeler Distributors (P) Ltd. v. State of U.P., (1974) 46 FJR 126: 1974 Lab IC 1044.

20. Termination of employment by an employee.—(1) No employee, other than an employee engaged for a specified period or in a leave vacancy, shall terminate his employment, except after notice of thirty days, or of such longer period, as may be required under the terms of his employment.

(2) Where an employee fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1), his unpaid wages for a period not exceeding fifteen days may be forfeited to his employer.

CASE LAW

Breach of provisions of Act does not invalidate termination of services and only remedy available to employee is complaint before Magistrate having jurisdiction under S. 33 of Act, Kanpur Industrial Development Co-operative Estate Ltd. v. Vinod Kumar Srivastava, (1980) 40 FLR 325 (All).

CHAPTER V

EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN AND WOMEN

21. Prohibition of employment of children.—No child shall be required, or allowed, to work in any shop or commercial establishment except as an apprentice in such employment as may be notified by the State Government in the Gazette.

22. Prohibition of employment of women and children during night.—No woman or child shall be required, or allowed, to work, whether as an employee or otherwise in any shop or commercial establishment during night.

23. Prohibition of employment of women during certain period.—No employer shall knowingly require or allow a woman to work, and no woman shall work in any shop or commercial establishment during the period of six weeks following the day on which she is delivered of a child.

24. Right of absence during pregnancy.—(1) A pregnant woman employee may, by seven clear days' notice in writing, require her employer to relieve her from duty for a period not exceeding six weeks preceding the expected date of delivery.

(2) On receipt of the notice the employer shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), permit such employee to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks ending with the expected date of her delivery.

(3) (a) On receipt of the notice, the employer may require such employee to be examined at his cost by a lady doctor, if she so desires, or, otherwise, by any qualified medical practitioner or a midwife.

(b) If the woman employee—

- (i) refuses to submit herself to medical examination, or
- (ii) on such examination is found not pregnant, or not likely to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date from which permission for absence from duty is desired, the employer may refuse to relieve her from duty, so however that the employee, if found pregnant, shall be allowed to remain absent from duty for a period of six weeks prior to the expected date of the delivery.

25. Maternity leave.—The period of absence from duty in respect of which a woman employee is entitled to maternity benefits under Section 26 of this Act, shall be treated as authorised absence from duty, and the woman employee shall be entitled to maternity benefits, but not to any wages, for any of these periods.

26. Maternity benefit.—Every woman employee who has been, for a period of not less than six months preceding the date of her delivery, in continuous employment of the same employer, whether in the same or different shops or commercial establishments, shall be entitled to receive from her employer for the period of—

- (a) six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery; and
- (b) six weeks following the day of delivery;

such maternity benefits and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no woman employee shall be entitled to receive such benefits for any day during any of the aforesaid periods, on which she attends work and receives wages therefor.

27. Intervals for rest.—A woman employee, during the period she is nursing her child, shall, in addition to the regular intervals of rest, be entitled to two breaks of half an hour each for the aforesaid purpose.

28. Prohibition of discharge or removal from service during or on account of absence from duty owing to confinement.—(1) No employer shall discharge or remove from service any woman employee on account of, or during the period of, absence from duty allowed to her under Section 26.

(2) No woman employee shall, as a result of her discharge or removal from service within six months of the day of her delivery, be deprived of the maternity benefits, which she would have, but for the discharge or removal, been entitled to, if the same is held by the Inspector to be without sufficient cause.

CHAPTER VI

ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES

29. Appointment of Inspectors.—The State Government may appoint a Chief Inspector, and a Deputy Chief Inspector, for the whole of Uttar Pradesh, and as many Inspectors for different areas thereof as may be considered necessary.

CASE LAW

Section 29 does not empower the State Government to appoint an Inspector other than a Chief Inspector and a Deputy Chief Inspector for the whole of U.P. for filing a complaint or for exercising powers enumerated in Section 30 in the whole of U.P., State of U.P. v. Kailash Chandra Bhargava, 1970 AWR 751: 1971 ALJ 14: AIR 1971 All 343: 1970 All Cr R 525.

30. Powers of the Inspectors to enter, etc.—Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, an Inspector may, at all reasonable times, enter any place which is, or which he has reason to believe to be, a shop or commercial establishment, for the purpose of examining the registers, records or other documents kept therein. The Inspector may take with him such persons to assist him as he may consider necessary, and the owner or the occupant, for the time being, of the place shall allow them to enter and examine the said registers, records or documents. The Inspector may seize such of them as he may require for the purpose of proving the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

CASE LAW

Where there was nothing to show that the Inspector who inspected the firm of the accused was appointed Inspector for the area in which the firm was situate as laid down in Section 29 it could not be said that the Inspector had jurisdiction to inspect the firm. Hence the prosecution of the accused for the alleged irregularities was liable to fail, State of U.P. v. Kailash Chandra Bhargava, 1970 AWR 751; 1971 ALJ 14; AIR 1971 All 343; 1970 All Cr R 525.

31. Inspectors, etc. to be public servants.—The Chief Inspector, the Deputy Chief Inspector and every Inspector appointed under Section 29, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

32. Maintenance of registers and records by the employers.—An employer shall maintain such registers and records and display such notices, as may be prescribed.

33. Contravention of provisions.—Any person, who contravenes, or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, or of the rules made thereunder, other than those of sub-section (1) of Section 20, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

CASE LAW

Proprietor having only one employee is not an industry hence, the employer was not duty bound to maintain attendance register and other documents in view of the provisions of the Shops and Establishment Act. There was no mandatory requirement to maintain all the documents, Soni Photostat Centre v. Basudev Gupta, (2004) 2 LLN 154 (All).

34. Offences by companies, etc.—(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder is a company, the company as well as every person in charge of, and responsible to, the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that, nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) “director” in relation to a firm is a partner in the firm.

CASE LAW

Any person who is in charge of the firm or company, etc. who was responsible for the commission of the acts can be prosecuted without prosecuting the company, Ram Kishan Agarwal v. State, 1976 All Cri C 106; 1976 Cri LJ 1984; 1976 AWC 215.

35. Punishment.—Any person guilty of an offence under this Act shall be liable to fine which may, for the first offence, extend to one hundred rupees and, for every subsequent offence, to five hundred rupees.

CASE LAW

The Magistrate can take cognizance of an offence on a complaint of an Inspector who is not authorised to make inspection. The Magistrate can take cognizance even on his own knowledge or suspicion. The information can be furnished by any man, Ram Nath v. State, 1979 All Cri C 278; 1979 AWC 432; 1979 Cr LJ 1145; 1979 All Cr R 321.

36. Limitation of prosecution.—(1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder except on complaint in writing made within six months of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

(2) Courts empowered to try offences under this Act.—No court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the Second Class shall try any offence under this Act, or the rules made thereunder.

⁵[(3) The Chief Inspector may, subject to any general or special order of the State Government in this behalf, compound any offence punishable under this Act, either before or after institution of the prosecution, on realisation of such amount of composition fee as he thinks fit not exceeding the maximum amount of fine fixed for the offence; and where the offence is so compounded—

(i) before the institution of the prosecution, the offender shall not be liable to prosecution for such offence and shall, if in custody, be set at liberty;

(ii) after the institution of the prosecution, the composition shall amount to acquittal of the offender.]

CHAPTER VII MISCELLANEOUS

37. Protection of action taken under this Act.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or authority under this Act, for anything done, or intended to have been done, in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules or orders made thereunder.

38. Presumption.—Whenever a shop or commercial establishment is actually opened, it shall be presumed that it is opened for the service of any customer or for the business, trade or manufacture normally carried on in the shop or commercial establishment.

39. Application of Workmen's Compensation Act and Rules.—The provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, and of the rules made thereunder, shall mutatis mutandis apply to every employee of a shop or commercial establishment.

40. Rule-making power.—(1) The State Government may ⁶[by notification] make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the State Government may make rules regarding all or any of the following matters, namely—

- (a) the registers and records to be maintained by an employer;
- (b) the notice to be displayed by an employer;
- ⁷[(b-1) the form of register of shops and commercial establishments under Chapter 1-A;
- (b-2) the fees for registration, for renewal of registration certificate and for issue of duplicate registration certificate under Chapter 1-A;
- (b-3) the form of registration certificate under Chapter 1-A;]
- (c) deductions that may be made from the wages of an employee;
- (d) fines and dismissals;
- (e) regulating the grant of casual leave and the payment of wages for the period of such leave;
- (f) regulating the grant of other leave;
- (g) maternity benefits and their payment;
- (h) matters which are to be, or may be prescribed under this Act.

(3) The rules made under this section shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.

(4) ⁸[* * *]

41. Repeal.—The United Provinces Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1947, is hereby repealed.

[SECTION 4-B(3)]

(3) If the Inspector concerned is satisfied about the correctness of the statement made in the application as provided in sub-section (2) of Section 4-B, he shall register the shop or commercial establishment in the register of shops or commercial establishments and issue a registration certificate in Form 'M'. The registration certificate shall, on demand, by the Inspector concerned be shown to him by the owner.

⁵[(4) Every owner of a shop or commercial establishment shall get his shop or commercial establishment registered for five financial years and if it is a case of renewal, renewed for five financial years which may be up to ten financial years at the time of next renewal under this Act on payment of prescribed fee. The shops and commercial establishments which are run on yearly contract basis shall pay the prescribed fee for that financial year only for which the contract has been given.

(5) Every registration certificate granted under Section 4-B or renewed under Section 4-C shall remain valid for such number of financial years, as it is registered or renewed for.

(6) Amendment of Registration Certificate.—The owner shall communicate in Form 'N' to the inspector concerned any change in the name and address of the shop or commercial establishment, name or names of the employers or change in the number of employees within 15 days of the date of occurrence of such change together with registration certificate and Treasury Challan/Bank Draft (Crossed) for Rs 5 in the case of a shop or commercial establishment having no employee and Rs 10 in the case of others and the amount, if any payable as specified in sub-rule (1) above having regard to the increase in the number of employees. The inspector concerned after being satisfied about the correctness of the change, shall make necessary amendments in the register of shops or commercial establishments and in the registration certificate and issue a fresh registration certificate, if necessary.]

[SECTION 4-C]

(7) Renewal of registration certificate.—(i) Every application for renewal of a registration certificate may be made on plain paper stating therein the name of owner, name and address of shop/commercial establishment and number of employees, to the Inspector concerned and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee. The renewal of the registration certificate shall be in Form 'M'.

(ii) The fee chargeable for renewal of a registration certificate shall be the same as for the grant thereof.

⁶[(8) Late fee on application for Registration Certificate and its renewal.—If an application for registration of a shop or commercial establishment is not received within the period specified under sub-section (1) of Section 4-B of the Act or an application for renewal of the registration is not received within the period specified in sub-rule (7) such registration or renewal, as the case may be, shall be made only on the payment of a late fee at the rate of 12-1/2 per cent of the fee of registration or renewal, per month or part thereof, in addition to the prescribed fee. The late fee shall accompany the application.]

(9) Transfer of registration certificate.—The registration certificate under these rules shall not be transferable. In case of transfer of ownership of a shop or commercial establishment the new owner shall have to apply afresh and obtain a registration certificate in that behalf on payment of the prescribed fee for it.

[SECTION 4-D]

⁷[(10) Issue of duplicate copy of Registration Certificate.—Where a registration certificate issued under Section 4-B or renewed under Section 4-C is lost, destroyed, torn, defaced, mutilated or otherwise becomes illegible, an application to the Inspector concerned for the issue of a duplicate copy thereof shall be made in Form 'O' accompanied by a Treasury Challan/Bank Draft (Crossed) for Rs 5 or Rs 10, as the case may be, on account of fee as specified below:—

For shops or commercial establishments:—

- | | |
|----------------------|-------|
| (i) Without employee | Rs 5 |
| (ii) With employees | Rs 10 |

Upon receipt of such application together with the fee, the Inspector concerned shall issue a duplicate copy of the registration certificate duly marked 'DUPLICATE' in red ink.]

(11) Payment of any fees under these rules through the Government Treasury or State Bank of India shall be credited under the Head of Account "0230—Labour and Employment—09—Shops & Commercial Establishments—Nibandhan Fees—800 Miscellaneous Receipts".

(12) Closing down of shop or commercial establishment to be communicated to the Inspector concerned.—The owner shall, within 15 days of his closing down the shop or commercial establishment, notify such closure in writing to the Inspector concerned. On receipt of the information and having been satisfied that the shop or commercial establishment has actually been closed down, the Inspector concerned shall remove such shop or commercial establishment from the register of shops or commercial establishments and cancel the registration certificate. The registration fee/renewal fee shall, in no case, be refunded.

(13) Display of the registration number in the shop or commercial establishment.—Every owner of the shop or commercial establishment shall display at a conspicuous place in his shop or commercial establishment the registration number on a plate with letters and figures at least 5 cms high and 1 cm thick written in white or luminous paint of any colour.]

[SECTION 5(1)]

⁸[3. Hours of business.—(1) No employer shall on any day open before 9 a.m. or keep after 8 p.m. any shop, not mentioned in Schedule II of the Act:

Provided that in summer the employer may open before 10 a.m. but not before 9 a.m.

Provided that earned leave shall not be taken more than three times in a year.

(b) The earned leave applied for, may be refused by the employer on grounds of exigency of work and reasons for giving refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the employee concerned.

(c) The order on an application, either accepting or refusing earned leave shall be passed and communicated to the employee before the date from which leave has been applied for.

(d) Every application for earned leave and the orders of the employer passed thereon shall be retained by the employer for a period of not less than three years.

(e) The employer shall at the close of every year, communicate in writing to the employee, on demand made by him, the account of his earned leave including leave carried forward from the previous year, the leave earned during the year, the leave availed during the year and the leave to be carried forward to the next year.

(ii) Sickness leave—

No application from an employee for sickness leave, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 10 shall be refused, but if in any case the employer is not satisfied about the truth of the assertion set out therein, the employer may require it to be supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner recommending the leave applied for.

(iii) Casual leave—

(a) Every application from an employee for casual leave shall be in writing. The employer shall record his orders on all such applications and shall retain them for at least one year.

- (b) Ordinarily no application for casual leave for one day in any month, if due, shall be refused by the employer. Where, however, an employee has rendered more than one month's service in any calendar year, he may apply for a part or the whole of the casual leave due to him, provided that such leave does not exceed one day for every month of service rendered by him in that calendar year.
- (c) An employer may after recording his reasons in writing refuse an application for casual leave from an employee on grounds of exceptional pressure of work requiring his attendance on the day or days in respect of which casual leave has been asked for:

Provided that leave shall not be refused where it has been asked for on account of accident, physical injury to the employee, death in the family or sickness of the employee, his wife or child.

- (d) Where an application has been made on grounds of physical injury or sickness of the employee, his wife or child, an employer may get the employee or the wife or child of the employee, as the case may be, examined at his (employer's) own expense by a registered medical practitioner for the purpose of verifying the facts mentioned in the application for leave and may grant or reject the application on the basis of the certificate of such medical practitioner.
- (e) The medical certificate shall be retained by the employer for at least one year.
- (f) Where an application for casual leave is refused by an employer under clause (c) the employer shall, therefor, grant equivalent leave to the employee in the same calendar year.
- (g) Any casual leave, not applied for, by an employee during a calendar year, shall lapse.

[SECTION 13]

11. Payment of wages.—(1) Wage period may be monthly, fortnightly, weekly or daily. Where the wage period consists of a month every employer shall pay the wages of his employee, before the expiry of the seventh day after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable. Where the wage period is either a fortnight or a week, payment shall be made by the employer before the expiry of three days after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable, where the wage period is daily, payment shall be made by the employer before the expiry of 24 hours of the wage period:

Provided that if an employee be absent on a day on which payment would have been made, but for such absence the payment shall be made within three days after the employee returns to work or demands payments.

- (2) All payment of wages shall be made on a working day.

[SECTION 15]

12. Deduction from wages.—(1) No deduction shall be made by an employer from the wages of an employee except on account of—

- (a) fines;
(b) absence from duty;

- (c) damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to the employee for custody, or loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is directly attributable to his neglect or default;
- (d) house accommodation supplied by the employer where the rent was being charged by the employer from the employee on the date the Act came into force;
- (e) such amenities and services as the State Government may, by general or special order, specify.
- Explanation.*—The word "services" in this sub-rule does not include the supply of tools and raw materials required for the purposes of employment;
- (f) recovery of advance or of overpayment of wages;
- (g) income tax payable by the employee;
- (h) amounts required to be recovered by order of a court or other authority competent to make such order;
- (i) subscription to, or repayment of advance from, any provident fund to which the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (XIX of 1925), applies or any other provident fund recognised under Rule 3 of Part A of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), or approved in this behalf by the State Government during the continuance of such recognition or approval;
- (j) payments to co-operative societies approved by the State Government;
- (k) revenue stamps required to be attached to pay receipts;
- (l) supply of cooked food or refreshment during the hours of employment in accordance with any scheme previously approved by the Chief Inspector;
- (m) payment of any insurance premium on the employee's life insurance policy or of contribution to the National Defence Fund or any Defence Saving Scheme approved by the State Government, provided that prior written authorization in this behalf is obtained from the employee;
- (n) payment of security deposits agreed to in writing by an employee and in accordance with any scheme approved previously in writing by the Chief Inspector;
- (o) employee's contribution to a superannuation fund approved under Part B of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act, 1961, or of any similar scheme agreed to in writing by employer and previously approved in writing by the Chief Inspector.

Explanation.—(i) Every payment made by an employee to the employer or his agent shall, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to be a deduction from wages.

(ii) Every deduction made by an employer or his agent from any deposit taken from an employee as security for the purposes of employment shall be deemed to be a deduction from wages.

- (2) No fine shall be imposed on an employee—

- (a) except for an act or omission specified by the employer with the approval of the Chief Inspector or the Deputy Chief Inspector; or
- (b) without giving the employee concerned a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed fine:

Provided that the employer may if he is satisfied that for some reason to be recorded by him in writing it is not reasonably practicable to give the employee an opportunity to show cause, dispense with such opportunity.

(3)(a) Deductions may be made under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) only on account of the absence of an employee from the place or places where, by the terms of his employment he is required to work, such absence being for the whole or any part of the period during which he is so required to work.

(b) The amount of such deductions for absence from duty shall, in no case, bear to the wages payable to the employee in respect of the wage period for which the deduction is made, a larger proportion than the period for which he has been absent bears to the total period, within such wage period during which by the terms of his employment, he was required to work:

Provided that, subject to any orders made in this behalf by the State Government, if ten or more employees or where the total number of employees is 20 or less one-half of the total number acting in concert absent themselves without the due notice (that is to say without giving the notice which is required under the terms of their contract of employment), and without reasonable cause, such deduction from any employee may include such amount not exceeding his wages for eight days as may by any such terms be due to the employer in lieu of the notice.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, an employee shall be deemed to be absent from the place where he is required to work if, although, present in such place he refuses in pursuance of a stay-in-strike or for any other cause, which is not reasonable in the circumstances, to carry out his work.

(4) A deduction under clause (c) of sub-rule (1) shall not exceed the amount of damage or loss caused to the employer by the neglect or default of the employee and shall not be made until the employee has been given an opportunity of showing cause against such deduction.

(5) A deduction under clause (d) or clause (e) of sub-rule (1) shall not be made from the wages of an employee unless the house accommodation, amenity or service has been accepted by him, as the term of employment or otherwise, and such deduction shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the value of the house accommodation, amenity or service supplied and in the case of a deduction under clause (e) shall be subject to such conditions as the State Government may impose in the order specifying the amenities or services.

(6) Deductions under clause (f) of sub-rule (1) shall be subject to the following conditions—

- (i) recovery of an advance of money given before employment began shall be made from the first payment of wages in respect of a complete wage period, but no recovery shall be made of such advances for travelling expenses;
- (ii) recovery of advances of wages not already earned shall be subject to any order made by the State Government regulating the extent to which such advances may be given and the instalments by which they may be recorded;
- (iii) no instalments for recovery of advance shall exceed one-third, or where the wages for any wage period do not exceed Rs 20, one-fourth of the wages for the period in respect of which the deduction is made; and

(iv) the amount and date of every advance and its repayment with the date thereof shall be entered in Form "G" prescribed under Rule 18.

(7) Deductions under clause (j) of sub-rule (1) shall be subject to such conditions as the State Government may, by order, impose.

(8) All such deductions and realizations shall be recorded in a register in Form "D".

[SECTION 17(1)]

13. Register of fines.—(1) Every employer shall maintain a register of fines and realization thereof in Form "E".

(2) At the beginning of the register shall be entered serially numbered approved purposes for which the fines realised can be expended.

[SECTION 17(2)]

14. Utilization of fines for beneficial purposes.—(1) The Chief Inspector shall be the authority empowered under sub-section (2) of Section 17 of the Act, by the State Government to approve the purposes on which recoveries of fines may be applied.

(2) The Chief Inspector may, by general or special order, direct that the recoveries of fines shall be expended in whole or part within such reasonable time as may be specified by him.

[SECTION 19(2)]

15. Acts constituting misconduct.—The following acts or omissions shall constitute misconduct for purposes of sub-section (2) of Section 19—

- (a) wilful insubordination or disobedience whether alone or in combination with another of any lawful order of a superior;
- (b) striking work either singly or with any other employee without giving due notice prescribed by any law for the time being in force;
- (c) inciting, whilst in the shop or commercial establishment, any employee to strike work;
- (d) theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;
- (e) taking or giving bribe or any illegal gratification whatsoever;
- (f) habitual absence without leave;
- (g) drunkenness, fighting, riotous or disorderly behaviour or conduct likely to cause a breach of peace, or conduct endangering the life or safety of any other person or any act subversive of discipline and efficiency and any act involving moral turpitude, committed within the shop or commercial establishment;
- (h) habitual negligence or neglect of work;
- (i) threatening or intimidating any employee in the shop or commercial establishment;
- (j) disclosing to an unauthorised person any information in regard to the working process of the shop or commercial establishment which comes into the possession of an employee during the course of his work;
- (k) gambling within the shop or commercial establishment;
- (l) sleeping while on duty; and

(m) insubordination, malingering, deliberate delaying of production or carrying out of orders.

Explanation.—No act of misconduct which is committed on less than three occasions within one year or a lesser period shall be treated as “habitual”.

CASE LAW

Strike.—In order to amount to strike it must be an action in pursuance of a concerted decision by workmen. If a workman acting on his individual whim decides on cessation of work it would not amount to ‘strike’ as defined under Industrial Disputes Act, Chhedi Lal Karia v. W.D. Pvt. Ltd., 1975 Lab IC 681.

Notice.—To attract Rule 15(b) the action of the employee must amount to strike for then alone a notice prescribed by law is required. No notice is required for mere absence from work, Chhedi Lal Karia v. W.D. Pvt. Ltd., 1975 Lab IC 681.

[SECTION 26]

16. Maternity benefit.—(1) The maternity benefits payable to a woman employee under Section 26 shall be at the rate of her average daily wages calculated on the total wages earned on the days when full-time work was done during a period of three months immediately preceding the date on which she has given notice under sub-section (1) of Section 24 or at the rate of Re 1 per day, whichever is more.

(2) The payment of maternity benefit accruing to a woman employee shall be made to her at any time not later than one week after the date of her delivery. Provided that if a woman dies during this period, the maternity benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death.

(3) The amount payable to a woman employee as maternity benefit in accordance with the foregoing rules shall for the purpose of its recovery be deemed to be part of her wages.

(4) Payment in respect of a claim of maternity benefit shall be made by the employer to the woman employee concerned or to a person nominated by her in writing or acting on her behalf, or in case of her death to the person who undertakes the care of the child and if the child does not survive her, to her legal heir.

[SECTION 24(1)]

17. The notice under sub-section (1) of Section 24 shall be in Form “F”. This form shall be made available by the employer to the employee concerned at any time during working hours.

[SECTION 32]

18. Maintenance of register, record, etc.—(1) Every employer shall—

(a) Employing up to ten employees shall also maintain a register in respect of attendance, and payment of wages, deductions and leave facilities in Form ‘CC’.

(b) Employing employees exceeding ten but not exceeding twenty-five shall maintain the register of attendance and wages in Form ‘G’ and also maintain a register of leave in Form ‘H’.

(c) Employing employees exceeding 25 shall be required to maintain a register of attendance and wages in Form ‘G’, a register of leave in Form ‘H’, a register of deductions from wages in Form ‘D’.

(2) Every employer employing more than 25 employees shall exhibit in his shop or commercial establishment a notice containing such extracts of the Act and these rules in Hindi written in Devnagri script, as the Chief Inspector may direct.

(3) Any notice required to be exhibited under these rules shall be exhibited in such manner that it can readily be seen and read by any person whom it affects and shall be in Hindi written in Devnagri Script. Every such notice shall be renewed promptly, whenever it becomes defaced or otherwise illegible.

(4) In any register or record which an employer is required to maintain under these rules, the entries relating to any day shall, as far as possible, be made on that particular day.

(5) The registers and notices to be kept by the employers relating to any year shall be preserved for six years after the expiry of the year to which they relate and shall be produced before an Inspector.]

CASE LAW

Omission to mark attendance.—Omission to mark the attendance of the worker in the register would not strictly amount to an offence. Where the omission of attendance related to a recent date and no question was put to the accused under Section 342, Cr.P.C., 1898 no infringement of rule was necessarily involved, State v. Mirza Bashir Beg, 1973 All Cr R 124 : 1973 All WR 150 : 1973 All LJ 220 : 1973 Cri LJ 1645.

[SECTION 30]

19. Manner of entry into premises and examination of records and registers, etc.—(1) An Inspector making entry under Section 30 may interrogate such persons as he may consider necessary.

(2) The Inspector may also call for any information, document or record relevant to his examination and obtain copy thereof.

(3) Before seizing any register, record or document the Inspector shall record in writing his reasons for such seizure and shall as soon as may be after the seizure grant a receipt for the same and shall retain the same only for so long as may be necessary for examination thereof for prosecution.

(4) After entry and on examination the Inspector shall record an inspection note, in duplicate and shall furnish one copy thereof to the employer. The inspection note shall state any defects or defaults that may come to light at the time of examination.

(5) An Inspector may require an employer to produce at his own expense a certificate of age in Form “I” of a registered medical practitioner in respect of any employee whose age he may have reason to doubt and whom he considers to have been employed in contravention of the provisions of the Act.

[SECTION 32]

20. Inspector’s Visit and Inspection Book.—Every employer shall maintain an Inspector’s Visit and Inspection Book in his shop or commercial establishment and shall produce the same before the Inspector on demand. The book shall contain all Inspection notes recorded or issued by Inspector in respect of that shop or commercial establishment.

21. Where the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the maintenance of any register in the form prescribed in these rules will entail particular hardship in the case of any shop or commercial establishment or class of shops and commercial establishments, he may allow the employers thereof to maintain the register in such modified form as may be determined by him.

CASE LAW

Where the proprietor of the shop was absent at the time of the Inspector's visit he cannot be punished for not producing the books before the Inspector, State v. Mirza Bashir Beg, 1973 All LJ 220: 1973 Cr LJ 1645:1973 All Cri R 124: 1973 All WR 150.

22. (1) Whenever the Collector is satisfied in respect of a shop that it deals exclusively or mainly in the material needed for burial, funeral and cremation purposes, he shall issue a notification in Form 'J' in respect of the shop.

(2) The notification shall be published by—

(a) delivering a copy thereof to the employer of the shop and another to the Inspector concerned; and

(b) being displayed on the notice-board of the office of the Collector.

(3) A notification under sub-rule (1) may, for reasons to be recorded, be cancelled by the Collector after allowing the employer of the shop an opportunity to show cause against the proposed cancellation.

NOTIFICATION

Noti. No. 401/36-3-06-7(MW)/04, dt. 24-2-2006.—In exercise of the powers under clause (b) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of Section 3 read with clause (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 4 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (Act No. XI of 1948), and in supersession of the notifications mentioned in Annexure I and after considering objections and suggestions received in respect of the Government Notifications No. 198/36-3-99-8(MW)/89, dated February 4, 2000, No. 3604/36-3-99-3 (MW)/97, dated October 25, 1999, No. 200/36-3-2000-3 (MW)/83, dated February 3, 2000, No. 4106/36-3-99-65(MW)/84, dated December 22, 1999, No. 605/36-3-2000-13(MW)/91 T.C., dated March 6, 2000, No. 3704/36-3-99-3(MW)/99, dated November 22, 1999 and No. 419/36-3-2000-1044(MW)/75 T.C., dated March 22, 2000 published in Official Gazette and with the advice of the Uttar Pradesh Minimum Wages Advisory Board, the Governor is pleased to revise the minimum basic rates of wages, on the average Price Index No. 522 for the period from July 2004 to December 2004, of All India Consumer Price Index (1982=100) for the employees employed in 59 scheduled employments mentioned in Annexure I below with effect from the date of publication of this notification in the Gazette:—

Basic rate of wages in employment mentioned at Serial No. 1 to 58 of Annexure I will be as follows—

| Sl. No. | Category | Minimum basic wage rates payable to employees |
|---------|-------------|---|
| 1. | Unskilled | Rs 2600.00 per month |
| 2. | Semiskilled | Rs 2964.00 per month |
| 3. | Skilled | Rs 3290.00 per month |

Basic rate of wages in employment mentioned at Serial No. 59 (Employment in Brick Kiln Industry) of Annexure I will be as follows—

| Sl. No. | Category | Minimum basic wage rates payable to employees |
|---------|-----------|---|
| 1. | Unskilled | Rs 2600.00 per month |
| 2. | Skilled | Rs 3290.00 per month |
| 1[] | | |

Note:—Categories of the employees are mentioned in Annexure II

2. Variable Dearness Allowance.—For any rise over 522 points of All India Consumer Price Index (1982=100), neutralising the dearness 100%, the Variable Dearness Allowance shall be paid from every April and October respectively for the period of July to December of preceding year and January to June of the same year.

Illustration.—On an imaginary average points of 525 for the period of January 2005 to June 2005 of All India Consumer Price Index (1982=100), payable amount of Variable Dearness Allowance will be as follows:—

1. Sl. Nos. 3 to 6 deleted by Corrigendum, Noti. No. 1101/36-3-06-7(M.W.), dt. 16-6-2006.

$$\frac{(525-522)}{522} \times 2600 = 14.94$$

3. The daily rate of wages shall not be less than 1/26th of the minimum basic rate plus Variable Dearness Allowance.

4. The hourly rate wages shall not be less than 1/6th of the daily rates.

5. The employees, whose working hours including interval for rest, are less than 6 hours a day or 36 hours a week, will be treated as part-time employees and their hourly rate shall not be less than 1/6th of the corresponding daily rate.

6. The above rates of wages shall not in any way operate to the prejudice of any employee. If the rates of wages prevailing before coming into force of these rates are higher, then the prevailing rate shall be continued and paid as if they have been so fixed under the said Act as minimum rates of wages and in no case the same shall be reduced by any employer.

7. If any work is performed or taken on piece-rate, the guaranteed rate for such work will be the presently determined time-rate.

8. The time-rate of minimum basic rate of wages, as decided above includes remuneration in respect of the day of rest, as contemplated under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948.

9. If an employer undertakes any work of employment, through contract labour, with or without obtaining the certificate under the Contract Labourer (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 (Act No. XXXVI of 1970) such labour shall be deemed to be the labour engaged by the employer directly in view of Section 9 of the said Act read with sub-clause (iv) of clause (i) of Section 2 of the United Provinces Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (U.P. Act No. XXVIII of 1947) and shall also be entitled to the same rate of wages and cost of living allowance which have been made admissible under Paras 1 and 2 of the notification.

10. The rate of minimum time-rate wages payable to adolescent shall not be less than time-rates payable to an adult employee.
